

Deo Deiparine

deo.deiparine@gmail.com

+1 860 944 0949

January, 2023

Education

2017-2020 Yale School of Architecture, Master of Architecture I, New Haven, CT

2011-2015 Washington University in St. Louis, Bachelor of Design in Architecture

Professional Experience

- 2022-Current aanda architects, Project Manager
Brooklyn, NY
Completed documentation through 100% Design Development for a 10,000sf workplace renovation. Completed planning services for a campus student center for Brown/RISD.
- 2021, 12 months Studio Goetz, Designer
New York, NY
Completed documentation through 100% Design Development for a 5600sf multi-generational house in Long Island.
- 2020, 6 months Outside Development, Designer
New York, NY
Compiled a 100-year plan and conceptual design document on behalf of a non-profit working with the residents of San Ysidro, San Diego. The proposal envisions a long-term decarbonization strategy and low-cost housing solution.
- 2017, 12 months Sarah Oppenheimer Studio, Design Assistant
New York, NY
Assisted with design and fabrication for projects at Perez Art Museum Miami, Art Basel Miami, and Wexner Center for the Arts.

Academic Experience

- 2019, Summer Kabul University Dreamer Institute, Yale University
New Haven, CT
Completed a planning and schematic design document under the direction of Sunil Bald for a women's STEM high school and maker space in Kabul, Afghanistan for the Digital Citizens Fund. Grant funding was provided by the MacMillan Center at Yale University in partnership with Yale's School of Engineering & Applied Sciences.
- 2018, Summer Jim Vlock Building Project Summer Internship, Yale University
New Haven, CT
Completed construction of a two-unit home for individuals formerly experiencing homelessness. The 2018 Jim Vlock Building Project marks the second year collaborating with Columbus House, a non-profit housing provider.

Deo Deiparine

deo.deiparine@gmail.com

+1 860 944 0949

January, 2023

Academic Experience, cont.

- 2018, Summer Columbus House Exhibition Coordinator, Yale University
New Haven, CT
Coordinated the design and construction of a pavilion on the New Haven Green in collaboration with Columbus House and the International Festival for Arts and Ideas.
- 2019-2020 Teaching Fellowships, Yale University
New Haven, CT
Spring 2020, Professor Elisa Iturbe, Architectural Design Studio II
Fall 2019, Professor Alexander Purves, Introduction to Architecture

Publication and Exhibition

- 2020 Retrospecta 43, design work included for publication
2019 Retrospecta 42, design work included for publication
- 2019, Fall Coordinating Editor, Paprika! Vol. 5
Served as coordinating editor for twelve issues with Camille Chabrol, Michael Glassman, and Helen Farley. Paprika! Vol. 5 was a recipient of a 2019 Graham Foundation grant.
- 2019, April Issue Editor, "Ends of Architecture," with Camille Chabrol and Martin Man
2019, September Issue Editor, "The Architectural Gaze Goes Clubbing," with Anna Sagström
2020, April Issue Editor, "Out of Work // Out of Control," with Andrew Economos Miller
- 2019-2020 Contributor, Paprika!
"On San Diego, California and Tijuana, Mexico," with Page Comeaux
"A Sort of Ambition: in Conversation with Elisa Iturbe"
"Staying Pissed"
"Best Thrift," with Thomas Mahon and X. Christine Pan
"Dissent and Let Simmer"
- 2013-2015 Founder/Director, Free Paarking, St. Louis, MO
Founded the independent project exhibition space in St. Louis and served as curator for nine exhibitions, featuring artists exhibited in the Whitney Museum, Serpentine Galleries, and New Museum.

Research

- 2020, April "Modernist Narrative, Rural Counter-Narrative: Resisting the Smart City in Gujarat, India," advisor: Esther da Costa Meyer, Yale University
- 2020, April "Consumer Control: Utopian Myth-making for the Smart City," advisor: Zachary Michielli, Yale University
- 2018, December "Promoting Equitable Development through Community Land Trusts," advisor: David
Kooris, Yale University
- 2018, April "The 1:1 and the MANY," with Michelle Badr, Camille Chabrol, Alex Pineda, Jen Shin, and Paul Wu; advisor: Keller Easterling, Yale University